SYNOPSIS:

Lili and Lola live in a small apartment in a big city with Mama and Papa and their lazy cat, Kensington. Their building is filled with interesting people from all over the world. Outside their doorsteps, the city awaits with fun things to do and places to explore.

Each episode contains a literacy lesson and a social/emotional lesson. We place special importance on the cultural celebrations and nuances of an Iranian-Canadian family, introducing audiences to Persian cooking, culture and traditions.

Episode 1 “THE LIGHT BULB”

When a cat chases a bird around the living room, everything gets knocked over. Can Papa, Lili, and Lola, clean up the mess before Mama gets home?

Episode 2 “SMALL”

When the family goes to a carnival, Lola is too small for the rides. Feeling frustrated, she wants to leave until an accident causes a crisis at the Ferris Wheel.

Episode 3 “LILI PICASSO”

When Lili accidentally turns in the wrong painting for a school assignment, she receives praise for a picture that she didn't paint. Rather than tell anyone the truth, she continues to accept compliments. Her lie grows bigger and bigger until she begins to feel guilty. Things get worse when the painting wins a contest. Lili knows she can't accept the award. What will she do ?

Episode 4 “LILI DETECTIVE”

When Lola can't find her pet monkey toy, Lili leads the family in a sleuthing adventure to locate the missing doll.

Episode 5 “NOROOZ”

The family sets the table for the Persian New Year but it all gets destroyed when Kensington gets his tail stepped on and goes leaping around the room. With everything ruined and only a few minutes left to go, can the family save Norooz?

Episode 6 “THE FOUR SEASONS”

When Lili is struck with a bout of stage fright, it's little Lola who comes to the rescue.

Episode 7 “THE MUSIC BOX”

Lili and Lola accidentally break something that belongs to their neighbor, Mrs. Oldstein. She thinks her parrot, Pele, is the culprit and punishes him. Lili and Lola must decide whether to tell the truth. If they do, however, it means they will get in a big trouble.

Episode 8 “THANKS BUT NO THANKS”

Sam comes over for lunch. Lili’s Aunt is making delicious Persian food, only he can’t jump in and eat because of a famous Persian tradition called “Taarof” - being polite.

Episode 9 “BABA’S ICE CREAM: PART 1”

Grandpa visits the family and decides to take the girls out for an ice-cream. However, he gets sidetracked into various Persian stores to teach the girls about the culture and history. While the kids were getting bored, they run into the Persian Day Parade, where the lessons come to life in front of them.

Episode 10 “BABA’S ICE CREAM: PART 2”

Lili and Lola, accompanied by their grandfather, Baba, race to find the last clue on their scavenger hunt for ice cream while at the Persian Day Parade.
